Saint Katharine Drexel was an American Catholic heiress, philanthropist, religious sister, and educator. In 1891, she founded the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, a religious order serving Black and Indigenous Americans across the United States. She was canonized as a Catholic saint in 2000. St. Katharine is the patron saint of racial justice and philanthropists.

“During this season of conversion, let us renew our faith, and receive with open hearts the love of God.”

- Pope Francis
